

Tableau – MCQ-1

1. How do you connect to a data file?

- a. by selecting the worksheet tab, and then selecting the worksheet menu
- b. by going to the navigation bar, and then selecting the type of file you want
- c. by dragging a pill onto another pill
- d. by hovering the mouse pointer over the right edge, and then dragging to the right

2. Which type of join is created when two files are combined by a field that they have in common?

- a. a right join
- b. a full outer join
- c. a left join
- d. an inner join

3. If you want to change the summary operation, what should you select from the menu that appears when you click the down arrow of a field positioned on a shelf?

- a. Dimension
- b. Measure
- c. Shelves
- d. Fit

4. You have a couple of columns in your sheet that need to be separated, one of which is the customer's name. Which steps do you have to take to separate the first and last names into their own columns?

- a. Insert two columns, and then manually add the data for each column.
- b. Insert two columns, and then select the down arrow and choose Split.
- c. Select the down arrow next to the "Cust Name" header, choose Custom Split, and then set the rule to remove the space between the names.
- d. Hover your cursor over the "Cust Name" header, and then select the down arrow and choose Split.

Abc CombinedData Cust Name
Graham Frederick
Jael Rice
Nolan Slater
Blaine Ashley
Medge Ratliff
Cally Reynolds

5. Which tool is used to clean up source data in Tableau?

- a. the Show Me tool
- b. the Filter tool
- c. the Marks card tool
- d. the Data Interpreter tool

6. How does Tableau let users join data sources with inconsistent field names?

- a.by identifying the fields within a crosstab
- b.by identifying the fields that each sheet has in common
- c. by identifying the fields with a tooltip
- d.by identifying the fields within a bin

7. What are Tableau stories used for?

- a. to convey a persuasive narrative about the user's insights
- b. to show multiple worksheets in the same dashboard
- c.to add text labels to a dashboard
- d.to add legends for worksheet elements